

Student Hand in of assignment work

Students will see the assignment as the teacher has set with the due date.

When the students open up the assignment, they will see "+add work" – here they can attach evidence of the work they have done so that the teacher can check it.

Students can browse to the work as they would to open or save work on any computer.