

MISSION YTF

Our summer reading initiative for 11-14s, Mission YTF, is also changing this year and going virtual!. Here's how to take part:

- between 7th July and 19th October, pick one of the challenges below to complete about any fiction book you have enjoyed reading this year. It doesn't matter when it was published or if it was eligible for YTF, it might be something you have read before or a new book you have discovered. This includes audio books, comics and anything you have read in a digital format such as e-books, e-audiobooks or e-comics.
- post a photo of your completed challenge on Instagram www.instagram.com/staffordshireytf, Staffordshire Libraries' Facebook or @StaffsLibraries on Twitter. Don't forget to #MissionYTF so that we pick up on your entry.
- on 23rd October we will announce the four lucky winners who will receive one of our fabulous donated prizes; a Day Pass for two people to Alton Towers to be used on Saturday 7th November, a £25 Amazon voucher, a £20 Leisure Voucher which can be used in dozens of places including Pizza Hut, TGI Fridays, Waterstones, Cineworld and HMV or a £10 National Book Token which can be used online or in hundreds of bookshops.
- throughout November, all the entries to the competition will be showcased in an online gallery

The Challenges:

- re-design a book jacket
- bake a cake or create a piece of art to represent your favourite character from the book
- write a haiku about how the book makes you feel. A haiku is a poem which has 3 lines (1st line has 5 syllables, 2nd line has 7 syllables, 3rd line has 5 syllables)
- make a 60 second video to encourage people to read the book you have enjoyed

Good luck!
